

Resource Deposition Request Form

Purpose of this document

Resource depositors that intend to add a resource to the repository of the CLARIN-D Center Leipzig need to provide basic information on their resource. Based on this information the repository maintainers will decide if adding the resource is possible or not.

Information on the resource

The resource to be added to the repository is:

- a tool
- a data resource
 - a textual resource (e.g. collection of texts)
 - an audio/video resource (e.g. a collection of audio/video files)
 - something else:
- something else:

The resource was created:

- in a research project
 - name:
 - website:
- in a bachelor/master/... thesis that was already reviewed (please provide it + review inform. in PDF format)

The resource is/was:

- reviewed as part of the review process of publications (please provide these publications in PDF format)
- widely used in one or multiple research communities
- another context:
-
-
-
-
-

The resource itself or access to the resource is available via:

- established/standardized interfaces/protocols/formats (please provide a list of these standards)
- proprietary interfaces/protocols/formats that are well documented (please provide a documentation in PDF format)

The summed up (uncompressed) size of the resource is:

.....

Information on available metadata

Metadata is or will be available in:

- CMDI format (please provide a list of the profiles/components stored in the CLARIN component registry)
- standardized format(s) (please provide a list of the formats)
- proprietary format(s)

Access to the metadata is:

- 100% free
- restricted (will not be accepted)

The summed up (uncompressed) size of the metadata is:

.....

Please provide an example set of metadata files!

Access Rights

Access to the resource is:

- 100% public
- research / academic use only
- restricted e.g. individual persons (will not be accepted)